BARNES CLARK
FAMILY LAW

FINANCIAL MEDIATION

Through engaging in the family mediation process you make informed and cost effective decisions for your financial future as opposed to spending a disproportionate amount of family assets by getting locked into costly and protracted litigation.

Financial mediation involves the exchange of financial disclosure and negotiating a settlement with the assistance of our specially trained and accredited family law mediators.

We involve other professionals through agreement where appropriate e.g IFA/s Counsel and pension experts to help you to reach the best solution to meet the future needs of you and your family.

DO I NEED TO MEDIATE?

Prior to issuing Court proceedings under the Child Arrangements programme or proceedings for financial remedy you are required (save in very exceptional cases) to attend a pre-court assessment (MIAMS) appointment

CHILD MEDIATION

We work with you to help you both make important decisions regarding the care of your children or grandchildren or other children in your family.

Mediation is a safe space to discuss and test out new arrangements/ways of working together without fear of being legally bound by discussions unless or until you agree such arrangements work and are right for both of you and most importantly your children.

If you have children aged 8 and above then Sally Clark, our highly experienced Child Inclusive Mediator can speak, with your consent to your children so they have a voice in the process and feel involved as important members of your family.
